

PERFORMANCE, ADHESION FOR HIGHLY RECYCLED CORRUGATE

HP 235 RECYCLED CORRUGATE PACKAGING TAPE

According to the Corrugated Packaging Alliance, “more than 74 percent of the corrugated manufactured today is recovered for reuse.” But, as the recycled content in corrugated containers increases, smaller fibers and more fillers are used, which can affect packaging tape’s ability to create a secure seal. It’s why we created HP 235 packaging tape – because recycled corrugate shouldn’t be an exception to the rule of product performance.

HP 235 is crafted to provide the secure seal and consistent performance that you demand, no matter the recycled content of the container to which it’s being applied.

A standard gauge, 2.0 mil pressure-sensitive packaging tape, HP 235 is designed with an enhanced adhesive engineered specifically for sealing highly recycled corrugated containers, particularly 100 percent recycled. The optimized adhesive formula results in higher adhesion and higher shear, and also provides for increased fiber tear when the tape is removed, offering tamper-evident security.
