

TAPE SOLUTIONS FOR THE MARINE MARKET

Whether you're working on a new boat build or repairing an existing one, tape is a critical part of the job. A single mistake can ruin the entire project. So, the tape you choose could stand between a job well done – and a job redone.

That's why Shurtape® offers marine heat shrink and hull preservation tapes that are engineered to perform in challenging marine applications. These polyethylene film tapes offer high conformability to wrap around surfaces and maintain a watertight seal for extra protection.

MARINE HEAT SHRINK AND HULL PRESERVATION TAPES

PE 900

9.0 MIL, UV-RESISTANT MARINE HEAT SHRINK TAPE

UV-resistant polyethylene tape offering excellent conformability for marine shrink wrap applications in boat storage and transportation by providing a watertight seal and humidity resistance.

PE 901

9.0 MIL, UV-RESISTANT MARINE HULL PRESERVATION TAPE

UV-resistant polyethylene tape used for marine transporting and temporary outdoor storage.

*Although hull preservation tape is designed to not leave residue, we recommend testing a small area before applying to the entire surface to avoid the possibility of a top layer of paint or finish removal.
